

CORVUS INN

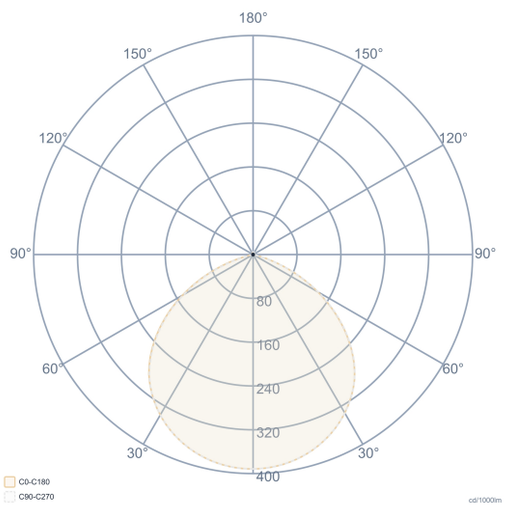

03170

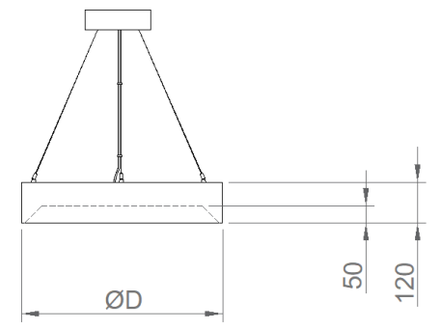

Contrast Inner Framed Circular Pendant Luminaire

The Corvus inn offers a modern design that sets it apart from standard round luminaires with its circular form and contrasting inner frame detail. The contrasting color application on the inner surface adds depth and a strong visual character to the product, creating a decorative effect in the space.

Its structure, which provides homogeneous light distribution, offers comfortable lighting. With its simple and modern design language, it stands out as a striking lighting element in offices, social areas, and architectural projects. With pendant and surface mounting alternatives, it offers functional and decorative lighting in one package, adaptable to different application needs.
